

i plan to celebrate this year
2009
by honoring these 3 resolutions...

When I tuck each of my three children; Jimmy, Emmy and Kate into bed at night, take a moment and speak to them about something special that happened that day...not rushed, just a quiet conversation with each of them.

Take the time each week to write a note of thanks to someone to acknowledge an act of kindness.

Once and for all update my address book. No more loose papers, business cards and napkins with addresses saved. An address book complete with accurate information.

We wish you a new year filled with laughter and love!
